Art Overload

Chelsea Art Walk is an annual event where many galleries throughout Chelsea take part in opening up in the evening with receptions and events for free.

It was by pure coincidence I came across the event flyer the day before. It sounded fabulous I felt art was calling me.

Jus Juchtmans' intriguing composition of abstract painting weirdly gave me a flashback of my childhood. Perhaps it was the shiny acrylic surface reminded me of metallic origami paper which I used to cover up the surface of my cardboard ballet pointe shoes! It's great when art makes you reflect on your personal experience and bring back your memories.
